My chosen story is of the young boy who lived with his grandmother. A story set in the in one of the villages in Eastern Cape. It is about the boy perfoming a brave stunt when his grandmother was in trouble. It is then when his grandmother realise the worrior with him as the grandmother always undermined the boy's potential capabilities.

Boy's profile

The black boy is a lonely character. He does not speak much. A young smart boy. An innocent little boy. Full of energy, though he is not strong. Inspired to do good. With an adventurous spirit justifying his braveness. He's patient. A character that triggers one sense of hope that will be well. A persistent young boy. Observant is he is, does not have much to say.
